

Pam Malin...

- Statewide Developmental Disabilities Coordinator for the Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault (WCASA).
- Northeast Wisconsin Regional Technical Assistance Coordinator for WCASA.
- Board Member for the Wisconsin Board for People with Developmental Disabilities (WPBPDD) appointed by Governor Doyle in 2010.
- Disabilities Coordinator for the Sexual Assault Center (SAC) of Family Services in Brown, Oconto, Door and Marinette Counties.

Pam has been providing support, advocacy and education to sexual assault victims with disabilities and their families for the past thirteen years. In addition she provides outreach and awareness to the community regarding the vulnerabilities of people with disabilities. Pam actively advocates for victims of sexual assault with disabilities on Sexual Assault Response Teams (SART). Together the teams are striving to make sure that all sexual assault victims including those with disabilities, are afforded their rights, and treated with dignity and respect.

Pam has presented at local, statewide and national trainings in regards to abuse of people with disabilities, trauma informed care and children with disabilities, multi-disciplinary response to crime victims with disabilities, healthy relationships and people with disabilities and many more topics. She is a trained expert witness in the area of sexual abuse and people with disabilities.

In 2010, Pam was hired on as a consultant for Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault (WCASA) as the Statewide Developmental Disabilities Specialist. In this role she trains sexual assault service providers in the state of Wisconsin how to respond to and support victims with disabilities. She also does trainings for professionals in the disability community and links them with local resources in sexual assault victim services. These two entities have existed in silos for years and it is Pam's goal to bridge these silos and start the collaboration between them.

Whether Pam is working on the local level, statewide level or national level, her passion is clear. She has dedicated her career to empower people with disabilities to become independent and to be able to advocate for their needs and safety.

Contact Info:

Pam Malin
Disabilities Coordinator
CARES LLC
920-819-5253 cares.disability@gmail.com